

Tori:

Where = most suspense

1. I felt the most suspense after the stairs where there were two enemies.
2. I think the most fun was sprinting past the big monster at the town
3. The NPC mentioned that the log blocked the village, but as soon as the conversation finished the log was gone.
4. I struggled the most at the top of the stairs.

I think you've already made a lot of progress on the game since this build was made. I think some sort of health indicator would help a lot. Great game, Tori! I love all of the models. :)
